

CNSSA

CLINICAL NEUROPHYSIOLOGY SOCIETY
OF SOUTH AFRICA

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION IS STILL OPEN

The 2023 Conference will be held from 19 - 21 October at the four-star Krystal Beach Hotel on Harbour Island in Gordon's Bay, Cape Town.

Program include practical workshops and introduction to new modalities!

Get updates on new developments in our profession and South African Research!

Get in touch with our trade partners and experience updates in equipment and technology

Join your colleagues and friend for a fun-filled GALA evening with entertainment by Sheldon de St Pern

REGISTER NOW

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE ACADEMIC PROGRAM

(Registration includes full day program with Lunch and Teas)

Thursday 19 October 2023

- Learn how to approach the electrodiagnostic and clinical workup of a painful foot/ankle
- Tone burst and Click ABR for the Clinical Neurophysiologist

Learn about the value of auditory brainstem evoked potentials in your practice and participate in a guided Practical Workshop

Friday 20 October 2023

- Come listen to Professor Peter Bartel speak on the Trailblazers of EEG in South Africa!

Do not miss this opportunity

- Dr E Papathanasiou will be there to teach you about Vestibular Evoked Myogenic Potentials

Participate in an interactive practice session and learn how to apply this technique

- HPCSA Ethics Lecture, Dr R Prakaschandra

Learn how to ethically promote your practice

CNSSA AGM, All Society Members (In-person/Virtual)

Saturday 21 October 2023

- ORIGINAL RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS

Learn what your colleagues have been up to lately

- Dr Kim Laxton will be presenting on Sleep and the role of Orexin
- Come interact with HPCSA and learn about the
The role of the Board and inspectorate: Regulation of Unregistered provision of service

JOIN US FOR THE SOCIETY ANNUAL GALA EVENING AT

The Captains Table with live music by Sheldon de st Pern

(Notice to follow)

It is the Clinical Neurophysiology Society's aim to provide a voice to our profession through membership and provide educational opportunities for both attendees and speakers through hosting our Annual Congress.