HPCSA Public Awareness Campaign in Bergville, KwaZulu Natal

24 July 2019

For immediate release

Pretoria – The Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA) is a statutory body, established to protect the public and guiding the professions. The mission of the HPCSA is quality healthcare standards for all.

In order to fully discharge its mandate of protecting the public and guiding the professions, the HPCSA in collaboration with the Okahlamba Local Municipality will be hosting a public awareness campaign in Bergville the area of Winterton, KwaZulu Natal province. The focus of the awareness campaign will be amongst others; to inform the public on the role and responsibilities of the HPCSA; to educate the public in terms of their rights as patients and to educate the public on the role of mediation in Medical Negligence. Another mandate of Council is to enforce compliance by practitioners in line with the provisions of the Health Professions Act, 1974. This awareness campaign will therefore educate the public on how to identify bogus practitioners and work closely with the HPCSA to root out and report fake practitioners.

Attending the event is the Mayor, Councillor, Mlungisi Ndlangisa, Ward Coucillors and other Stakeholders

Details of the event are as follows:

Venue: Khethani Community Hall, Winterton (Bergville), KwaZulu Natal
